CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

14 DEC 1981

Colonel Duane E. Vandenberg
Director of Intelligence
United States Readiness Command
MacDill Air Force Base, Florida 33608

Dear Colonel Vandenberg:

Your 17 November 1981 letter to the Director of Central Intelligence has been referred to me for action and response.

Let me first express our apology for the incident which resulted in the issuance of a traffic citation for parking in a restricted area. You were indeed following instructions provided by the Agency in advance of the orientation sessions. I am also distressed that the matter could not be courteously settled when you first brought it to our attention. I apologize for any lack of helpfulness you may have felt with respect to the entire episode.

With respect to the parking citation itself, the Agency is still exploring ways to make amends to you. The instructions you received, as well as the wording on the restricted parking signs are both being changed so that similar incidents cannot recur.

As soon as we are able to take action to amend your citation problem, I will let you know. I certainly hope that your broader perspective will maintain your respect for this Organization.

Sincerely,

Director of Security
